

GLOBAL EMERGENCY SERVICES

PROVIDED BY

Scholastic Emergency Services
an assist america® partner

PacificSource Student policyholders traveling more than 100 miles from home or campus, or studying abroad have access to a global emergency assistance program provided by Scholastic Emergency Services (SES). This program immediately connects students to doctors, hospitals, pharmacies and other services if they experience a medical or non-medical emergency while away from home with no financial caps or limits on services provided.

One simple phone call to SES will connect you to:

- A state-of-the-art 24/7 Operations Center
- Experienced, multilingual crisis management professionals
- Worldwide emergency response capabilities
- Air and ground ambulance service providers

HEALTH PLANS

MEDICAL EMERGENCY SERVICES

Medical Consultation, Evaluation & Referral

Calls to SES' Operations Center are evaluated by multilingual, emergency-certified personnel and referred to qualified healthcare facilities.

Foreign Hospital Admission Assistance

SES fosters prompt hospital admission outside the United States by validating the member's health coverage or by advancing funds to the hospital as needed. Funds must be reimbursed within 45 days.

Emergency Medical Evacuation

If adequate medical facilities are not available locally, SES will arrange and pay for whatever mode of transport, equipment and personnel necessary to evacuate a member to the nearest facility capable of providing a high standard of care.

Medical Monitoring

SES' medical personnel will maintain regular communication with the member's attending physician and/or hospital and relay information to the family, as appropriate.

Medical Repatriation

If a member still requires medical assistance upon being discharged from a hospital, SES will arrange and pay for the member to be transported home or to a rehabilitation facility, with a medical or non-medical escort, as necessary.

Prescription Assistance

If a member needs a replacement prescription while traveling, SES will help in filling that prescription. SES is not responsible for the cost of the prescription.

NON-MEDICAL EMERGENCY SERVICES

Care of Minor Children

SES will arrange for the care of enrolled children left unattended as the result of a medical emergency and pay for any transportation costs involved in such arrangements.

Compassionate Visit

If a member is traveling alone and will be hospitalized for more than seven days, SES will arrange and pay for economy, common carrier, round-trip transportation to the place of hospitalization for a designated family member or friend.

Return of Mortal Remains

SES will arrange and pay for the logistics of returning a member's remains home in the event of his or her death during travel.

Other non-medical emergency assistance services include:

Return of Vehicle

Lost Luggage & Document Assistance

Legal & Interpreter Referrals

Emergency Message Transmission

Emergency Trauma Counseling

Bail Bond & Emergency Cash Coordination

Pre-trip Information

ELIGIBILITY

Domestic students:

Domestic students and their declared spouse and dependent child(ren) are eligible for services when they are traveling more than 100 miles away from their permanent residence, U.S. campus address or while participating in a study abroad program.*

International Programs:

International students and declared spouse and dependent child(ren) are eligible to receive services at and away from their campus location.*

In order to access services provided by Scholastic Emergency Services, you must also be enrolled in the PacificSource insurance plan. Dependents are only eligible if also eligible on your insurance plan.

CONDITIONS

SES will not provide services in the following instances:

- Travel undertaken specifically for securing medical treatment
- Injuries resulting from participation in acts of war or insurrection
- Injuries resulting from attempted suicide
- Injuries resulting from the use of drugs unless prescribed by a doctor
- Commission of unlawful act(s)
- Transfer of a student from one medical facility to another medical facility of similar capabilities and providing a similar level of care

SES will not evacuate or repatriate a student:

- Without medical authorization
- With mild lesions, simple injuries such as sprains, simple fractures, or mild sickness which can be treated by local doctors and do not prevent the student from continuing his/her trip or returning home
- With a pregnancy beyond the end of the 28th week
- With mental or nervous disorders, unless hospitalized

Exclusions:

- Students that are not enrolled in an accredited academic institution
- Domestic students at their home or school campus as not considered in travel status (medical repatriation and return of mortal remains services are available from the school campus regardless of the travel status)

While assistance services are available worldwide, transportation response time is directly related to the location/ jurisdiction where an event occurs. SES is not responsible for failing to provide services or for delays in the delivery of services caused by strikes or conditions beyond its control, including by way of example and not by limitation, weather conditions, availability of airports, flight conditions, availability of hyperbaric chambers, communications systems, or where rendering of service is limited or prohibited by local law or edict.

All consulting physicians and attorneys are independent contractors and not under the control or responsibility of SES.
